INTERVIEW SUMMARY A

SIR:

The Applicants wish to thank examiners Thein and McClellan for the courtesies extended to the undersigned during the telephone interview. The undersigned requested clarification of the 112, second paragraph rejection of claim 27 and the Office indicated that the rejection would be withdrawn in the next Action.

The undersigned and the examiners discussed the teachings of the Ohtani reference with respect to the pending claims. Although no new Action will be issued at this time, the Office indicated that at least some of the present 103 rejections may be improper. Further, while the Office indicated that at least some of the claims may be anticipated by Ohtani, other pending claim limitations were favorably received by the Office and may be allowable. The limitations which were favorably received pertain to direct communication of the device with the vendor, programming of the device prior to deployment in an end user environment and communication without user intervention.

No specific agreement was reached with respect to any of the pending claims and the undersigned indicated that the assignee would most likely file a response. Additional details of the interview are presented in the response which accompanies this Interview Summary.

The Examiner is requested to phone the undersigned if the Examiner believes such would facilitate prosecution of the present application. The undersigned is available for telephone consultation at any time during normal business hours (Pacific Time Zone).

Respectfully submitted,

Mark A. Harper
